FOREWORD

For this 1952 volume of the "DUNKLE ROT UN GOLT" we have selected the Pennsylvania Dutch theme with the hope that the sketches herein might portray the beauty and simplicity of the life and customs of those people to whom we owe so much for our rich heritage.

Some of the best years of our lives have been spent at A. H. S. It is our sincere hope that the pages of this book will record those pleasant memories and recall all the treasured moments. May we preserve the memory of these years for our future days.

AUBURN HIGH SCHOOL

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1952, wish to dedicate this, our fifth annual, to

MR. FREDERICK K. KRAUSS,

principal of the Auburn High School and our class advisor for two years. He has continuously placed goals in front of us, and has encouraged us in all fields of education.

ALMA MATER

Auburn High School, ever love thee
Through the March of Time;
Standing on a forest hillside,
High above the town.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Praise to thee we sing;
May thy sons and daughters ever
Hail to thee, our queen.

"— STANDING ON A FOREST HILLSIDE —"

Honor, love, to God and country,
For all truth and right;
Thou hast ever taught unfailing
Even as the night;
As we scatter o'er the tumult,
You will always be
Standing on a forest hillside,
Auburn High, to me.

Principal's Message

SENIORS:

Judging from your present endeavors, I anticipate a yearbook that will reflect careful thought and planning. It will be one that has engaged the activities of every member of your class. It will also be one, I am sure, that will stand as a worthy monument to all of your fine achievements during your school life.

Producing a yearbook provides opportunities for acquiring experiences that should be of lasting value. You have experienced the necessity for each one in the class to contribute a share of the work. When one shirks, his responsibilities become an added burden to the group. You have experienced the need for frequent group meetings, consultations, and discussions, conducted in a democratic manner with full class participation in order to arrive at vital decisions affecting the very existence of the book. You have experienced the need for securing competent advice and help on matters requiring careful decision but on which you knew little. You have experienced the need for planning in order to achieve maximum results with minimum waste and error. You have experienced the extensive work and thought that is required in order to carry a project of merit through to a successful conclusion.

I am confident that this yearbook will be worthy of your class and a credit to our school. I am confident that you have grown in wisdom and stature during its production, and I am confident that your lives in the future will reflect the same kind of planning, preparation, work and thought that went into the making of this annual.

With best wishes,

FREDERICK K. KRAUSS.

To a fine young lady and a very good pupil. Best wishes of Frederick K. Krauss.

"OUR LAST SCHOOL DAYS"

School is just about over,
And we must soon depart;
But we will always cherish
These days within our hearts.
We face the future unafraid,
As we climb the ladder to success;
We'll strive vigorously
To do our very best.
Remember the Class of '52
As always being loyal, faithful, and true;
Dear Alma Mater,
We're leaving you.

—VERNA TRUMBO.

CLASS SONG

"SENIOR CONTEMPLATIONS"

(Tune: "Are You Lonesome Tonight?")

We are leaving tonight
the school that we love,
We'll remember the days
that are gone;
We will always remain
dear to our school,
As we did through the years gone by.
To the teachers we're fond of
we say good bye,
And the friends that we've made
at our dear Auburn High;
Will they miss us
as we'll miss them, too?
Farewell to our dear Auburn High.

—Words by MARION SOWERS.

Sylvia, I wish the best of everything may go through school that you may go through school and your future is bright. Good luck! Neal E. Borkey

NEAL EDWIN BORKEY

"Neal"

Neal, one of the tallest members of the class of '52, is known for his personality among his many friends. He is the assistant editor of this annual and also manager of the production staff of the Pioneer. He has great ability to work the movie projector. Neal's favorite subject is English, and his favorite sports are baseball and basketball. Although he is a valuable player on the boys' basketball team, his ambition is to become a major league baseball player. Best of luck to you, Neal.

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September of 1948, twenty boys and girls entered Auburn High School as freshmen. The Class of '52 held their first class meeting on September 15th and elected the following officers:

President.....	Neal Borkey	Treasurer.....	Anna Klinger
Vice-President.....	Mary Wargo	Reporter.....	Beverly Seiler
Secretary.....	Verna Trumbo	Historian.....	Kathleen Sowers
Adviser.....	Mr. John Kopenhaver

During the freshman year we went to Pottsville and visited the Court House, County Jail, City Hall, "Republican" newspaper office, and Yuengling's Ice Cream Plant. We had a class party this year. Members of our class participated in the following activities: Orchestra, Chorus, the Pioneer, F. H. A., and Girls' and Boys' Basketball. Beverly Seiler, Anna Klinger, Pearl Kilmer, and Marion Sowers were members of Auburn High's undefeated basketball team. This year we regretted losing Francis Heim and Richard Long.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

On September 14, 1949, we held our first class meeting for the year and elected the following officers:

President.....	Neal Borkey	Treasurer.....	Anna Klinger
Vice-President.....	Beverly Seiler	Reporter.....	Mary Wargo
Secretary.....	Verna Trumbo	Historian.....	Kathleen Sowers
Adviser.....	Mr. Frederick Krauss

Our class activities consisted of two hoedowns and a record dance. We also sold Holly Wreaths. During the year, members of our class took part in Girls' and Boys' Basketball, Pioneer, Chorus, Orchestra, F. H. A., and High School Play. This year we lost William Moyer, Mary Wargo, and Roland Zeckman.

JUNIOR YEAR

Now as dignified juniors and determined to succeed, we elected the following officers:

President.....	Neal Borkey	Treasurer.....	Anna Klinger
Vice-President.....	Beverly Seiler	Reporter.....	Kathleen Sowers
Secretary.....	Verna Trumbo	Historian.....	Marion Sowers
Adviser.....	Mr. Frederick Krauss

In October of this year our class rings arrived. We were all pleased with them. We participated in selling magazines with the seniors. We also had two hoedowns, a bake sale, and sold school hats during the year. Members of the class took part in F. H. A., Chorus, Orchestra, Girls' and Boys' Basketball, Pioneer. At the end of this year we regretted losing Carl Bailey, Elwood Singley, and Kathryn Long.

SENIOR YEAR

At last! The senior class of '52 in A. H. S. was out to make the best of our last year. We decided to keep the same officers as last year. We now have twelve members left. We had a hoedown on October 14th. Our senior play, "Spring Fever," was held on November 16th. We also joined the juniors in selling magazines. The class elected Verna Trumbo, editor; Neal Borkey, assistant editor; Beverly Seiler, business manager; Marion Sowers, assistant business manager; Pearl Kilmer, sports editor; Lee Fessler, assistant sports editor; for the yearbook staff. Pearl Kilmer, Beverly Seiler, Anna Klinger, Marion Sowers, played on the girls' basketball team. Verna Trumbo and Kathleen Sowers were managers. Neal Borkey, Lee Fessler, George Seiler, and Harold Marbarger played on the boys' varsity basketball team. John Mengel was a manager. Verna Trumbo was editor of the Pioneer. Members of our class took part in all activities of the school.

It is the year of 1957, and a beautiful evening in June. Everywhere in the vicinity of Auburn are huge posters reading, "Gala Reunion." Many days ago, invitations were sent to all former pupils urging them to attend and particularly stressing an evening of wonderful entertainment.

The hour for the great event has arrived. Every seat in the vast new auditorium is filled, and all are eagerly awaiting the performance in which many delightful surprises have been promised. The stage is decorated with flowers. It is truly a festive occasion.

Seated in the audience are many celebrities. As I look about me, I see a number of my old classmates. There is "Neal Borkey," who is now playing basketball for the "Warriors," and in his spare time coaches the varsity basketball team at Penn State.

The ladies occupying the front seats are all dressed so becomingly that they arouse my curiosity. I am told their attire comes from the very select, not to say the most expensive, shop of "Anna Klinger," who designs gowns for all the best-dressed women in the country. She is here herself and looks "very chic."

Seated near her is "John Mengel," who owns his own barber shop. We all recognize him by his familiar laugh.

Another celebrity I saw was "Earl Faust," three times Governor of the State of California, and leader of the new progressive party. His motto is "all for one and that one me."

Imagine my surprise when I see "Lee Fessler" coming toward me. He is dressed in a stunning uniform and looks as handsome as ever. He is a captain in the U. S. A. Walking next to him is his life-long buddy, "George Seiler," a noted welder who is famous for his wonderful welding technique.

I have already talked to our former classmate, "Marion Sowers," who is now a private secretary to the head of the RCA Victor Corporation.

Two people now entering and receiving a warm reception from the committee at the door are "Beverly Seiler" and "Verna Trumbo," who are superintendents of nurses in the Philadelphia General Hospital. If there are any accidents tonight, we feel sure the sufferers will be properly attended to with "Beverly" and "Verna" on the job.

And now the entertainment is to begin. There is a hushed expectancy. The lights in the auditorium fade and the footlights flash on.

Before the packed house appears a tall, dignified figure, who makes an eloquent address of welcome. It is indeed our classmate, "Harold Marbarger," who has fulfilled his life ambition by becoming a Colonel in the U. S. A. F.

Oh, before I forget to mention it, the music for the program is provided by "Kathleen Sowers," who is now featured as a singer for Guy Lombardo's orchestra.

Next comes a big surprise. The speaker for tonight is none other than our own pal, "Pearl Kilmer," who will tell us of the many thrills and adventures she has had while in the W.A.F.'s.

This brings to the end our successful reunion. The entire audience rises and sings our "Alma Mater." It has been a real delight to see all of our old friends once again.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two, realize that our days at Auburn High School are coming to an end, do hereby make the following bequests:

FIRST: To our dear ALMA MATER, we wish success in educating our underclassmates.

SECOND: To MR. KRAUSS, our principal, who had been our class adviser in our sophomore and junior years, we bestow the patience and understanding.

THIRD: To the FACULTY, we wish them the patience and understanding to the underclassmates.

FOURTH: To the JUNIOR CLASS, we wish continued success in publishing an annual.

FIFTH: To the SOPHOMORE CLASS, we will our money-making schemes.

SIXTH: To the FRESHMAN CLASS, we bequeath the opportunity of being high and mighty seniors some day.

SEVENTH: INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS:

1. NEAL BORKEY'S athletic ability to FLOYD FIDLER.
2. EARL FAUST'S quietness to SHIRLEY SEILER.
3. LEE FESSLER'S blonde hair to GERALD TROUTMAN.
4. PEARL KILMER'S basketball technique to EILEEN ROGERS.
5. ANNA KLINGER'S good marks to ROBERT STEVENS.
6. HAROLD MARBARGER'S Math ability to JAMES SEIGFRIED.
7. JOHN MENGEL'S height to ATHENA FRYER.
8. BEVERLY SEILER'S wittiness to CHARLES ZECKMAN.
9. GEORGE SEILER'S driving ability to HAROLD DEIBERT.
10. KATHLEEN SOWERS'S singing talent to PATSY REBER.
11. MARION SOWERS'S sense of humor to CLAIRE HOUTZ.
12. VERA TRUMBO'S yearbook worries to next year's editor.

We, the Class of '52, Seniors of Auburn High School, being of sound mind, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

BOYS' VARSITY

In 1951-1952 Auburn High School made its debut in the South Schuylkill League with very little success. They went through the entire league season without a victory. However, we had one consolation by winning one exhibition game. Due to the lack of experience, height, and number of boys compared to other schools, Coach Krauss' boys showed great spirit and good sportsmanship.

Next year we wish Coach Krauss a more successful season. He will have five boys returning, while Neal Borkey, George Seiler, Lee Fessler, and Harold Marbarger will be absent due to graduation.

We want to thank Coach Krauss for the effort and time he spent with us. Everyone wishes Coach Krauss and all of next year's team the best of luck in 1952-1953.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD

Second Row: Dolores Mickshaw, Carol Ann Binner, Marlene Kissinger, Anna Klinger, Ruth Orlando, Georgetta Minnich.

Third Row: Kathleen Sowers, Pearl Kilmer, Beverly Seiler, Mr. Krauss, Margaret Seigfried, Ruth Schrader, Verna Trumbo.

As we came to the close of the '51-'52 season, we found the girls' basketball team playing many remarkable games, but still not being able to be undefeated.

With Frederick K. Krauss coaching, the girls were able to win six out of seven games.

This year the team will lose four valuable players. They are Anna Klinger, forward; Pearl Kilmer, forward; Marion Sowers, guard, and Beverly Seiler, guard. They will also lose two managers: Verna Trumbo, manager; Kathleen Sowers, assistant manager.

We wish the girls much success in their future basketball games.
